

Workshop On Using Archives & Libraries

Important contacts:

The Bridge - <https://thebridge.network>,

grants for graduate students with The Bridge via <https://therussiaprogram.org/fieldwork>

The British Library Slavonic Collections, London, UK <https://www.bl.uk/subjects/slavonic-studies>

For detail on the archives and libraries introduced during the workshop see PowerPoint slides.

Other institutions with relevant collections:

Amherst College, US - <https://www.amherst.edu>

Beinecke Library, Yale - <https://beinecke.library.yale.edu>

Harvard Library - <https://guides.library.harvard.edu/digitalslavic/archives>

La Contemporaine, Paris - <http://lacontemporaine.fr>

Scott Polar Research Institute Library, Cambridge - <https://www.spri.cam.ac.uk/library/>

StB Archive, Prague - <https://www.abscr.cz/en/how-to-request-archival-materials/>

National Archives of the Republic of Azerbaijan - <http://milliarxiv.gov.az/en>

Niels Bohr Library & Archives at the American Institute of Physics - <https://www.aip.org/history-programs/niels-bohr-library>

The Finnish National Archives - <https://kansallisarkisto.fi/en/frontpage>

Helsinki's Aleksanteri Institute Archive - <https://www.helsinki.fi/en/aleksanteri-institute>

Hoover Institution, Stanford University <https://www.hoover.org/>

Archives and libraries with interviews on the 'Peripheral Histories?' blog (see bottom of post for all relevant links, including websites, electronic catalogues and more).

The British Library <https://www.peripheralhistories.co.uk/post/the-british-library>

The ICRC archive and Library <https://www.peripheralhistories.co.uk/post/the-icrc-archive-and-library>

Archives in Moldova <https://www.peripheralhistories.co.uk/post/archives-in-moldova>

Archives in Georgia <https://www.peripheralhistories.co.uk/post/georgian-archives-and-libraries>

The National Archives of Estonia <https://www.peripheralhistories.co.uk/post/the-national-archives-of-estonia>

The University of Illinois Slavic Reference Service <https://www.peripheralhistories.co.uk/post/the-university-of-illinois-slavic-reference-service>