

British Association for Slavonic & East European Studies

Polish Studies Group

invites scholars and publishers to submit original research articles or book chapters for the third edition of the annual

Polish Studies Article Prize

The prize honours the best English-language article or book chapter in Polish studies published in a peer-reviewed journal or an edited collection with an imprint of 2023. The prize is open to scholars of all nationalities whose work advances the field of broadly understood Polish studies, in any academic discipline. Doctoral candidates and Early Career Researchers are encouraged to apply.

The award carries a cash prize of £200. The winner will be invited to give a lecture on their research at the annual workshop of the Polish Studies Group.

Nominations and self-nominations are due on or before February 10, 2024. The results will be announced in May. To submit your work please fill this on-line form.

